

Apéro for Females in Clinical Research

We are excited to invite you to a special Apéro event dedicated to women undertaking translational and clinical research. This informal gathering aims to provide an opportunity to connect, share experiences, and build valuable networks with colleagues at the University of Bern and University Hospitals.

Tuesday 29 August 2023 17:00

Department of Clinical Research

sitem-insel 1st Floor
Freiburgstrasse 3, 3010 Bern

RSVP by 21.8.23 (for catering) to nadha.fowzul@unibe.ch

We encourage you to invite colleagues at any stages of their research career. Together, we can create a stronger network and support system for women in clinical research.
